Petition U/S- 125 Cr.P.C.

Application for under section 125(3) of the code of Criminal Procedure with the prayer to grant interim maintenance during the pendency of the main petition

Respectfully Sheweth:

1. That the petitioner have filed a petition under section 125 for grant of maintenance under code of Criminal Procedure along with the present application which is pending before the learned court.
2. That the grounds mentioned in the main petition may kindly be read as part and parcel of the present application as the same has not been produced to avoid repetition of the same.
3. That as per the grounds setup in the main petition, there is prime facie case in favour of the petitioners and against the respondent. And in case, interim maintenance is not granted in favour of petitioners, in that eventuality, they will suffer great hardship in meeting their day to day expenses as already submitted that they have now totally become dependent upon their father. The respondent has sufficient source of income to maintain him as well as the petitioner. It is pertinent to mention here that after the petitioners were forced to leave the house of the respondent, he has even not cared to have any amicable settlement and has not given any single anna to the petitioners for their maintenance, as such the respondent has breached the obligatory marital duties and obligations to maintain the petitioner.

It is, therefore, most respectfully prayed that the application may kindly be allowed and respondent be directed to pay a sum of Rs. 2 Lakh to the petitioners as interim maintenance from the date of filing of the application till its decision on merits.

The respondent be also directed to pay litigation expenses of the present petition to the petitioner.
